

Switching my phone-number from Verizon (a legacy telephone service provider) to Vonage (a VoIP service provider) has become a nightmare. There NEEDS to be agreements that allow the transfer of phone number between service providers based on customer request.